I have never had my acupuncture license, certificate or registration revoked by any local, state, or national health care agency.

As a licensed acupuncturist in the state of Iowa, I comply with all statutes and rules adopted by the Board of Medicine, which regulates acupuncture, including using only presterilized, disposable acupuncture needles.

Being licensed to practice acupuncture in Iowa does not authorize me to practice medicine.

Assessment and treatment by an acupuncturist must not be regarded as diagnosis, treatment or advice by a person licensed to practice medicine.
